

Description:

The electronic nameplate system software is mainly used in the conferences. It has high requirements for electronic nameplates, conference services, SMS functions, and fluency in conferences. It supports conference service function, and automatic reminders in the background are convenient for the conference administrator responds to various service needs during the conference. The electronic nameplate system software has greatly promoted the development and progress of the paperless conference, and is widely used in conference rooms of governments, institutions, enterprises, hotels and other industries.

Feature:

- * Support C/S management and control structure, issue the conference theme, nameplate background and nameplate information uniformly through the client, click to preview on the homepage, and support unified control of shutdown.
- * Support conference information management, send the conference name, conference slogan, and conference content to the terminal in real time.
- * Support personnel list editing function, add, import, modify, delete user information, and support real-time modification and distribution to users.
- * Support unified management of multiple voting, real-time viewing of voting process and results, and export voting results.
- * Support voting template function, you can preset voting templates and set multiple voting options.
- * Support centralized control of terminal, control terminal to switch conference information, display slogan, display nameplate, clear screen (clear terminal display data), and control terminal shutdown.
- * Support conference sign-in management, control the start and end of sign-in, and sign-in assistance, and check the current sign-in status.
- * Support conference notification function, send system notification to terminal in real time.
- * Support the conference service function, process the service demands sent from the terminal in real time.
- * Support the unified setting function of the terminal nameplate in the background, you can set the background image, background color, unit, position, and uniformly set the font color and size, which can be delivered to the terminal for management in real time.
- * Support real-time display function of wireless and wired terminal device list status, display online status, and drag to sort.
- * Support one-click batch update of electronic nameplate information through the client, and batch import and export of personnel information from EXCEL tables.