

Description

The electronic nameplate management software can uniformly manage the liftable nameplates. Through the software, you can rank according to the layout of the conference room, change the nameplate interface, customize the interface background image, customize the font/size, uniformly lift and lower, uniformly clear the screen and other functions; it is mainly used in conference rooms in various industries such as government, enterprises, institutions, military, companies, hotels, and so on.

Feature

- *It adopts C /S management and control architecture, supports quick meetings and customized meetings, and unifies nameplate background and nameplate information through the client.
- *It supports personnel list editing function, which can add, import, modify and delete user information, and supports real-time modification of users and distribution to terminals.
- *It supports individual lifting and lowering of the electronic nameplate list, unified lifting and lowering control, individual screen clearing and unified screen clearing (clearing terminal display data) after the meeting , checking the real-time online status of the device, setting IP and other operations .
- *Supports customization of participant selection in the participant list, import and export of temporary participants, independent modification and editing of personnel information , etc.
- *Supports one-click batch update of electronic nameplate personnel information through the client, and supports batch import and export of personnel information in EXCEL tables.
- *Supports conference room floor plan layout management, provides template and background image import, manually or automatically associates equipment and table information, and achieves clear visual layout.
- *Supports creating meetings through the software, and can reserve meeting times, meeting rooms, and import/add participants.
- *It supports visual layout function, and can import the on-site layout diagram to uniformly issue nameplate information or issue nameplate information individually for each seat position; it supports one-click screen clearing function.
- *It has the function of nameplate setting: it provides a rich selection of background colors, and customers can choose different background colors through hexadecimal color coding ; it can choose to change the background image, and provides six background images for users to choose from, and also supports custom background images; it supports switching font type, font size, and text color.