

Description

It provides hospitals with service functions such as live TV broadcast, video on demand, and publicity introduction, so as to help improve service quality and efficiency, and create the hospital's brand image.

Feature

- * Support live channel classification management, you can add/edit/delete/view live channel classification information.
- * Support program list management, it can automatically synchronize the TV channel program list within a week.
- * Support on-demand resource management, you can add/edit/delete/upload/download video resources.
- * Support multi-episode management of on-demand resources.
- * Support classification management of on-demand resources, and support two-level classification.
- * Support setting boot screen, picture type and video type.
- * Support custom homepage pictures, hospital introductions, medical notices, etc.
- * Support the release of interstitial content, and support four interstitial types: scrolling notification, emergency notification, picture, and video; support setting playback device, playback mode, and playback time.
- * Support custom menu content, you can order food through the remote control on the TV terminal.
- * The homepage theme page can be customized as needed.
- * Support connecting with systems such as hospital fee inquiry to realize content customization.
- * The TV box supports unified channel management, unified volume, and scheduled power on/off.
- * The TV box supports a maximum resolution of 1920*1080.