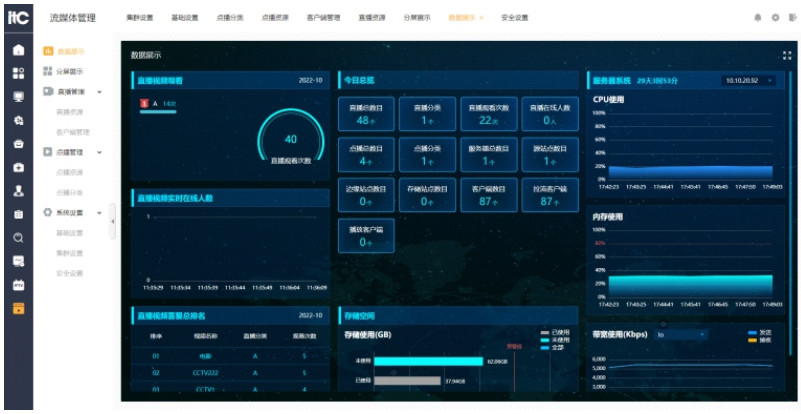
Streaming Media Integrated Management Software V2.054

TR-0700M



Description

It is a multifunctional streaming media platform integrating live broadcast management, on-demand management, server management, and security settings, etc. It is suitable for various scenarios such as hotels, subways, and hospitals.

Feature

* Support live resource classification management, you can add/edit/delete/view live classification information.
* Support webpage addition and file import of live resources; live resources can be imported in batches or separately.
* Support preview playback of live resources, adjust volume of sound, start/pause, full screen/exit full screen.
* Support up streaming and down streaming of live signals, you can manage devices such as optical modems and intermediary servers during up streaming, and can also remove and manage playback clients during down streaming.
* Support the management of on-demand resource classification and storage location, which can be added/edited/deleted/viewed.
* Support transcoding service and sync service for on-demand videos, among which "transcoding service" is to convert the video format that does not conform to the platform and TV end into a compliant video format, and "sync service" is to synchronize the on-demand video to the storage server.
* Support preview playback of on-demand resources, you can adjust sound volume, start/pause, adjust duration progress bar, play double speed, full screen/exit full screen.
* Support downloading on-demand videos to the local computer.
* Support viewing the transcoding progress and sync progress of on-demand videos, and support adding/editing/viewing/deleting on-demand videos.
* Support multiple split-screen display styles to play live video and on-demand video, such as single screen, four-split screen, nine-split screen, and sixteen-split screen.
* Support platform data statistical analysis, such as displaying live classification views, live video real-time online number, live video favorite ranking, today's overview data, CPU usage of each server, memory usage, bandwidth sending and receiving usage and storage usage. Support full screen and exit full screen operation.
* Support setting the SRS server, and support enabling/disabling/restarting the SRS server.
* Support viewing the status, data and other info of source sites, edge sites, and storage servers.
* Support the interface authorization management of third-party client systems, and support adding/enabling/disabling/editing/viewing/deleting interfaces.
* Support permission management of client IP addresses accessing the streaming media system, you can enable/disable the whitelist function, and can add/import/export/edit/view/delete the whitelist.
* Support management of account passwords for down streaming authentication, you can add/enable/disable/edit/view/delete accounts.
* Compatible with win dows 7, windows10, windows11 system.