

Server login interface

Setting interface

Distributed Integrated Management System Interface

Description:

The software collection terminal of the distributed integrated management platform system is installed on the desktop and laptop terminals of the windows system. It has the function of collecting, encoding, and sending desktop video signals. It can replace the collection box hardware and reduce cost.

Feature:

- * The computer desktop signal can be displayed on the video wall by soft collection. In the wireless WIFI network environment, support PC terminal collecting computer desktop video signals;
- * Support manual setting of bit rate and frame rate, suitable for various complicated network environments;
- * Support audio output, support audio and video synchronization, support processing capabilities such as noise suppression;
- * Support H.264 video technology to provide high-quality video display effects; support 720P, 1080P and other resolutions; support 720P, 1080P 30 frame smooth video effects.