

Feature:

- * Support the conference system automatically pushing media stream information and promotional videos (videos, pictures, etc.) within a preset time after making a conference appointment; support customized preset layout containing multimedia screens and conference information, to realize multifunctional data display on the entrance screen.
- * Support material upload management, built-in transcoding tool, support png, jpg, jpeg, gif image format, support MP4, mkv, wmv, flv, f4v, m4v, rmvb video format, support mp3 audio format, and support doc, docx, xlsx, pdf file format.
- * Preview programs with one key, save programs to the shared area, and view program details.
- * Support multiple playback modes such as scheduled playback, idle playback, and interstitial playback, support multiple playback methods such as offline playback, online playback, and buffer playback, and support the unfinished program withdrawal function.
- * Support program review function, notify the submitter of whether the program review is approved.
- * Support data statistics for information release, and display graphically the server's disk space occupancy, memory usage, CPU usage, and program release success rate (total number) information. The lower part is the bar charts of the device status (online, offline, alarm) and the type of material upload (picture, video, others).