

Description

Speech-to-text transcription conference video wall software is a video wall subtitle transcription software installed in the Kirin system., supporting real-time subtitle display, video wall design and other functions. Support display single, double, and three-line text and full screen display. Support editing of subtitle display background, text color, transparency, custom LOGO, etc.

Feature

- * The screen supports floating window subtitles to display the speech-to-text transcription content, and set the video wall subtitle font size. Subtitle position can support up and down docking. At the same time, it supports four display styles: single-line, double-line, three-line, full-screen, etc..
- * Support customizing the font color and transparency of the transcribed text and the untranscribed text.
- * Support custom Logo pictures, display and hide custom Logo.
- * Support subtitle background color and transparency adjustment; support custom full screen projection background color or background image replacement, support custom full screen background transparency settings.
- * Support custom video wall conference title and subtitle content, and support custom font style, font size, font color, and alignment.
- * Support customizing the content of the video wall text, and support custom font style, font size, font color, and alignment.
- * Support the conference minutes in the conference to generate QR code pictures for sharing.
- * Support historical conferences, conference minutes, recording files to generate QR code image sharing.
- * Support modifying the font color and transparency of the conference name.