

Elementary School Application

Features:

Bell broadcast: For the school programs the class bell according to the daily schedule and timetable, and the server run automatically according to the programmed bell schedule to realize automatic bell ringing for all zone, particular zone group and selected zone group. It can meet school requirements for bells for different time and different area.

Program broadcast: Users can operate the campus music on the server for automatic programming broadcast and manual control play in all zones or particular zone group or the designated area in school radio control room and the teacher's office, meeting the demand of school timely music play in different area.

Multimedia instruction: Users can operate the network audio terminal and login server program library in the classroom, and choose listening files, the terminals support functions like single cycle, multiple loop, subsection playing, fast forward, fast rewind and replay etc, meeting the demand of playing different teaching files freely.

Remote course preparation: Support remote login the server in teacher's office to add listening files and audio files; Support audio files play on demand via the remote audio terminal in any classroom; Support WEB access, support multiple login synchronous and support thousands of classroom terminals to play audio files on demand at the same time.

Wireless broadcast: To meet school outdoor activities, system support handhold wireless microphone broadcast like school Square, flag tower, playground, etc.

Remote broadcast: Set network paging station in the principal and teacher's office for remote paging for all zones, particular zone group and selected zones.